

Questionnaire for Bi Polar Police Scotland

1. In your estimation when does persistent anonymous nuisance communication become harassment and stalking

After 2 occasions, ten occasions, several hundred, an automated daily imposition

2. ON a scale of 1-10, DO you consider your fellow officers to be empathetic, to the complainants where stalking is concerned

3. Did Police Scotland give you any specialist training at Colindale, regarding people who have been persistently harassed by anonymous personae, using smart gadgets

Were you encouraged to read and understand UK criminal legislation as well as Scots law as updated by the Scottish Parliament.

For example

had you read the UK Human Rights Act as a standard enacted by a New Labour government in 1998

Likewise the UK Protection from Harassment and Stalking Act 1997

Have you personally been given attitude retraining in work time to understand the intentions of the Scottish Parliament's 2021 Anti Hate Crime Acts

4. If you were a police officer at the time did you support the UK devolution acts or oppose

Is it possible that prejudice and vicious interference tactics can be aimed at and projected at a white man in this community?

DID you learn about collimated beam and coherent light projection outlet devices at Colindale,

IS that antennae in the back yard by the cell windows with a grey hemispherical cover 'merely' Police Scotland's dedicated short wave

Does it have light emitter capabilities?

Was it a sensible strategy to remove the police headquarters for the H&I from Inverness to Dalmarnock in the central belt

I

IS it beneficial to diverse distant communities that the emergency complaints line 101 is all routed through a large administrative greenhouse set in an extensive sea of tarmac at Dalmarnock

Are 101 phone operator officers given training on understanding remote communities and diverse personae.

How do you understand the concept of hierarchy, are the better understanding officers moved up the ranks. Or the more ambitious, do police hierarchies play dominance games in the workplace like many private sector managers.

Is it reasonable for Police Scotland PR to manipulate adult social care managers through that organisations 'Powers' to get rid of critics, claiming they police Scotland's PR staff have rights of referral using libellous prejudiced and erroneous data.

Are the data protection acts still being misused politically with deliberate political prejudice to discredit criticism

Is the operation manner of the Storm data I/O system, that is input/output phone answerers opinions and retrieval operators discernment a reasonable and accurate system in categorising complainants.

How does that get abused reduced to nothing more than prejudiced partisan aggression and covert cover up, aiding and abetting and a decline in any standards of truth.

Is the internal police reviewing system disposing of complainant statistics after two years included in Police Scotland on Twitter statistics?

Are private security consultants, neighbourhood watch all good citizens, with no opportunist aggressive nasty tendencies.

Do the many private owned landed estates in Scotland need to be protected by remote surveillance and automated vector targeting projection technology?

Here is a question for Patrolman Mark of Brae, in the Shetland isles do you ever question in neighbourly differences & issues passed to you by dalmarnock 101 the versions of complainant and perpetrator of anti social activities damage, pestering threatening, how do you decide who is lying?

Counter accusation is a sort of pre primary school instinctive knee jerk response by muggers, cheats, liars, old tory bores and so on.

What were the Scottish gov referring to by the term Transphobic Hate crime?

Does taking orders in a hierarchy ie from persons of rank sometimes seem a wee bit unnatural, are the constabulary collectively represented so that dominance games and ambition are not going to put people off their work or worse transfer their resentments to some other minority?

A minority whose 101 complaints can be ignored probably had it coming for drawing attention to themselves.

What is visual material?